- What This is a silent sketch. The devil chooses a challenger to go against him in an arm wrestling match. They go to the table; Satan wins effortlessly. The person gets up, fights again, and is again defeated. Scared and hurting, the person goes to Jesus. Jesus challenges Satan on the person's behalf and easily wins.
Themes: Surrender, Victory, Jesus, Salvation, Sin, Evil, Satan
- Who Jesus
Devil
Actor
- When Present
- Wear (Props) Small table
Sunglasses
- Why Exodus 14:14; Deuteronomy 3:22
- How This script would also work really well when music is playing in the background. Have Jesus wear a white t-shirt and jeans and the Devil wear a black t-shirt. The actor should wear casual clothes.
- Time Approximately 3 minutes

A table is placed center stage. Jesus walks onstage and stands near the back of the stage in the form of the cross. Actor/Actress is seated in the audience. Devil enters stage right.

Devil: With a cocky attitude, he scans the audience, looking for someone to play with. He points mischievously at Actor/Actress and motions for her to come onstage.

Actor: *Walks onstage from the audience with a curious look on her face and stands near the Devil

Devil: Silently challenges Actor/Actress to a game of arm wrestling. Pounding on the table, he gets his arm ready and motions for Actor to take the place opposite him.

Actor: Interested, yet timid, approaches the table and locks hands with the Devil.

Devil: Immediately slams Actor's arm down on the table.

Actor: Falls to the ground, writhing in pain and holding her hurting hand.

Devil: While Actor is down on the ground, he begins to look in the audience for another challenger.

ENDING:

Jesus: Looks the Devil intently in the eyes and swiftly slams his hand down on the table, winning the match.

Jesus: Hugs Actor and they walk off stage right together.

Lights fade. The end.
