

A script from

“Easter Changed My Day”

by onetimeblind
www.onetimeblind.com

- What Easter comes around every year. If it’s such an exciting time, why do we fall into the rut of thinking it’s just the same old thing every time? Themes: Relationship, Resurrection, Freedom, Complacency, Easter
- Who Drew
Jesus
Three extras
- When Present
- Wear (Props) White robe
Purple sash
Fake beard
Easter basket
Candy
- Why Ephesians 1:18-21, Romans 6:4, Philippians 3:10-11
- How Keep the dialogue moving and energetic. For more ideas on how to perform this sketch, preview the video "How Easter Changed My Day" at SkitGuys.com.
- Time Approximately 2 minutes

Drew is onstage, with a line of three people waiting on his stage left side. He is dressed up like Jesus, in a white robe, purple sash, and fake beard. He is holding an Easter basket, handing out candy to people as they walk by him in a single-file line.

Drew: Here ya go. I'm alive. Next. (Drew hands candy to a person who walks by, then the next person walks past him and gets some candy) "Hoppy" Easter. Next. (Next person moves forward to get candy. This is the last person, as Jesus walks up next, and the rest of the sketch only involves Jesus and Drew) Eat this in remembrance of me. Next. (Jesus, dressed in normal clothing, walks up to Drew. Drew is surprised) Whoa! Jesus!

Jesus: Hey, Drew...what's going on here?

Drew: Oh! Nothing, just celebrating Easter, just like we do every year. But this year I added a stylish beard. (Drew tugs his fake beard, then gives Jesus a confused look) Where's yours?

Jesus: I don't understand. Why are you handing out candy?

To read the rest of this script and perform it, download the full version at SkitGuys.com!

ENDING:

Drew: You're kinda making a lot of hype out of nothing. But don't worry- we'll do it all again for you next year. (Drew looks at his watch.) You know what? I got a ham in the oven. Take over for me. (He gives the basket and beard to Jesus, then calls out to the next person in line toward offstage) Next.

Drew exits, leaving Jesus onstage watching after him.

Jesus: (Disappointed) Easter could have changed your life, but sadly- it only changed your day.

After a moment, Jesus exits.