

“A Fun Call to Worship: The Chuckwagon Cook”

by
Ginny Neil

- What This lighthearted skit reminds us that even when life seems monotonous or boring, God is good and will constantly provide for us.
- Themes: Worship, Praise, Taste and See, Church Service, Monotony, Boring
- Who Cowboy 1
Cowboy 2
Cookie
- When Present
- Costumes and Props Cowboy hats
Cook's hat
Bell or dinner triangle
Spoon
- Why Psalm 34:8
- How Although these are silly skits, the humor should not overshadow the invitational feel at the end. Actors can be either male or female.
- Have fun with this! Feel free to ad lib your own lines as well.
- Time Approximately 1 minute

Cowboy 1 and Cowboy 2 mosey up the aisle and perch somewhere up front.

Cowboy 1: I don't know about you, but I'm so hungry I could eat a horse's back end, front end and everything in between.

Cowboy 2: You ain't aimin' to eat my horse, are you?

Cowboy 1: No, you dingo, that's jest a figger of speech. It means I am powerful hungry.

Cowboy 2: Well, I'm right glad you ain't gonna eat my old mare because I just got that frisky fool to quit throwing me off onto every cactus she spots. (rubs rear end). I'm still pickin' stickers outta my rear.

Cowboy 1: I don't wanna think about your prickly hind end when I'm dreamin' of vittles. Where's Cookie anyways? He ought to be callin' us in about now.

Cookie enters.

Cookie: (clanging bell) COME TO THE WAGON. THE COOKIN IS DONE. I'M THE BEST DAGGONE BEAN COOK, I MAKE MY BEANS FUN. COFFEE AND BISCUITS AND BEANS A LA CARTE. SO MANY BEANS YOU'LL WANT TO...START.

Cowboy 1: Beans again? That's all we ever get.

Cowboy 2: How about some hog jowl or hominy?

Cookie: Oh, quit yer complaining or you won't get any dessert.

Cowboy 1: What's fer dessert?

Cookie: Bean tart. It'll make you...smart.

Cowboy 2: Wa'll I'm already smart 'cause I know something that tastes a whole lot better than your daggum beans. Psalm 34 says we should taste and see that the Lord is good; blessed is the one who takes refuge in him. Fear the Lord, you his holy people, for those who fear him lack nothing.

Cowboy 2: Taste and see that the Lord is good? (holding up spoon) Should I bring my eatin' iron?

Cookie: No you dingo. Jest bring your heart.

Lights out.
