Dance music plays. Mary is talking to Disciple who is dancing.

Mary: I love weddings.

Disciple: I love the dancing after weddings!

Mary: Yes, I can see that. And I see my son, Jesus, loves that part too.

Enter Jesus dancing heartily.

Jesus: This song is my jam! (Offstage) Hey DJ, turn it up!

Music volume goes up and they really start to break it down.

Servant enters and whispers the bad news into Disciple's ear who then whispers into Mary's ear. They all continue to dance while they discuss.

Mary: Oh, dear. That is too bad. But what can I do?

Both the Servant and Disciple motion/nod to Jesus.

Mary: Ask Jesus?

Servant and Disciple nod "yes" and urge her to ask Jesus.

Mary: (dancing toward Jesus) Jesus, sweetie...

Jesus: (listening to the music) Here it comes! I love this part!

Mary: ...honey, the boys here were just saying...

Jesus: (listening to the music) Wait for it! (Pause) Air guitar solo!

Jesus does an air guitar solo.

Mary: Jesus, honey...that was so great. But these two here were just telling me that they've run out of wine here at the wedding.

Jesus: Really? Already? But this party's just getting started.

Mary: Yes, I know...and they were wondering if maybe you could...you could, y'know...do something about that.

Jesus: (realizing what she's saying) Oh...yeah. I gotcha. But Mom, it's not, y'know...it's not my time yet to do anything.

Mary: Alright dear. I won't push. (Not guiltig him...just thinking sincerely out loud) I was just thinking about our friends and family and how disappointed they might be if...

Jesus: Y'know what Mom, guys...I love weddings. I love this couple who got married. I love these people here. They're my friends. They're my family. That's why I'm here celebrating with them at this wedding! I love them! And I want them to have the best wedding ever, so...here's what we're going to do. (To Servant & Disciple) Get me a couple of jars and fill them with water.

Servant: Water?

Jesus: Water.

Servant and Disciple run off.

Mary: Thank you, sweetie. This will really show them that you care about them and their everyday lives and happiness.

Jesus: I haven't done anything yet, Mom.

Mary: But I know you...and I know whatever you do it will be one for the books.

Servant and Disciple come back with the jars.

Jesus: Awesome. Now take those jars to the master of the wedding banquet and tell me what he says when he tastes it.

Servant and Disciple look at each other a little confused, but then with a shrug they run off with the jars.

Jesus: (patiently waiting) Wait for it.

Servant and Disciple return without jars.

Disciple: He loved it! He said it was the best wine he's ever tasted in his life!

Servant: That was...that was...

Mary: A miracle?

Servant: How did you do that? How did you turn water into wine?

Jesus: (listening for the music) Oh good! We haven't missed my favorite part!

Music volume up and Jesus starts rocking out again on the invisible guitar and moves offstage.

Servant: Who is that guy?

Mary: Why, that's my little boy. Jesus.

Disciple: Man, I love that guy! (Disciple starts dancing off after Jesus) I'm right behind you, JC!

Servant: (Servant gives Mary a sort of confused look but then running after them) Hey! Wait for me! I wanna follow you too!

Mary: So it begins. (Listening to the music) This is a nice little ditty.

Mary breaks into a pretty sweet air guitar solo. It's short but sweet.

Mary: I still got it. (Then more demurely she dances her way offstage)

Exit
