Son is onstage in "bed".

Son: Dad! Dad! Daddy! Dad!

Dad: (Comes running in quickly but still half asleep) Yeah, Son, I'm here. I'm here.

Son: Dad, I need to go sleep with you and Mommy.

Dad: No, you don't, Son. It's three in the morning and you need to stay in your bed.

Son: There's a booger monster under my bed, Dad.

Dad: What?

Son: There's a booger monster under my bed and I need to sleep with you and Mommy.

Dad: There's not a booger monster under your bed.

Son: Yes, Dad, there is.

Dad: Well, if there's a booger monster under your bed it's because you keep wiping your boogers under there. If you'd quit wiping the boogers, the booger monster would go away.

Son: Dad, I'm cereal (serious). I'm cereal.

Dad: You're what?

Son: I'm cereal!

Dad: You're cereal? No flakin'?

Son: (He thinks about it for a second) Yes, Dad, no flakin'. I'm cereal. Quit treating me like a fruit loop.

Dad: Hey, hey, don't make me sugar smack you.

Son: Dad, you're such a frankenberry. Listen, I really am cereal.

Dad: Hey, give me the Total answer.

Son: Dad, if you keep doing this I'm just going to tell you to Cheerio and then you're going to be in trouble, okay? Because I'm being cereal with you here.

Dad: Well, I wouldn't ever leave you 'cause you're my Lucky Charm...my little Coco Puff.

Son: Boo! Berry. Dad, I'm scared because there's a booger monster under my bed and I need to go sleep with you and Mom.

Dad: No, you don't need to come sleep with me and Mom. How do you know there's a booger monster underneath your bed?

Son: Well, because his name is Sebastian.

Dad: Your booger monster's name is Sebastian?

Son: Yes.

Dad: (Frustrated) No, you just need to sleep in your room.

Son: Nuh uh. Mom! Mom!

Dad: Shhh!! Don't wake up your mom!

ENDING:

Dad: Okay! That's what I need you to know. Sometimes life is going to get scary and you feel like you have a booger monster under your bed. But you know what? We've all got booger monsters. When you're little they live under your bed. When you're a teenager your booger monster is teenage girls. It's scary! But when you get older you have other booger monsters...things that are tough in life. But you can't worry about them. You have to believe that your daddy is good and wants the best for you. Just as I have to believe that my daddy (points up) is good and wants the best for me even though life sometimes gets scary. Okay?

Son: Okay, Daddy.

Dad: So I'm the daddy.

Son: You're the daddy and I'm the son.

Dad: And Daddy is...

Son: Daddy is good.

Dad: Yes, Daddy is good.

Son: And the son is...

Dad: The son needs to go to sleep.

Son: No, the son needs to sleep with Mommy and Daddy. Mom!!

Dad: No! Listen, I can tell you a secret about the booger monster you have.

Son: Sebastian?

Dad: Yes.

Son: You know Sebastian? How?

Dad: Well, he was my booger monster when I was your age.

Son: Get out!

Dad: Here's the thing. If you will go back to sleep, stay in your bed, do not leave your bedroom, do not make a peep until eight-thir...until nine-thirty then you'll be just fine!

Son: Really?

Dad: Yes. But, if you do get up before nine-thirty...the booger monster will eat you. Goodnight Son!

The End.
