

A script from

"Church Hop"

by Eddie James

- What Todd has been stranded on an island for a long time and has recreated his hometown out of boxes. But why would there be three different churches?
Themes: Church, Membership, Commitment, The Body of Christ
- Who Todd
Rescuer
- When Present
- Wear (Props) Todd should have on tattered clothes.
Rescuer should wear some sort of uniform or something to identify him as a rescuer.
Several boxes all different shapes and sizes.
Volleyball with a face like Wilson from the movie "Castaway."
- Why 1 Corinthians 12:12-31, Hebrews 10:25
- How Have fun with this skit! During his sermon, your Pastor may refer to the "box city" as he preaches about being committed to the body of believers. This skit leaves plenty of opportunities for you to personalize it for your audience and community.
- Time Approximately 3-4 minutes

Todd enters wearing ripped pants and a tattered shirt. He is barefoot and looks like he's "been through it". Wilson, the volleyball, is placed on stage. Part of the stage is set up with a bunch of boxes all different shapes and sizes. If you can get some refrigerator boxes it can make the places that are references to feel more like actual "locations".

Todd: Wilson! Wilson! Where are you?! Where you y-oh...there you are. Wilson, don't ever wander off like that again. (Looking at volleyball- has the same face as "Wilson" did in the movie, Castaway) I can't find you when you wander off to this place. (Pointing to box) I know you like Jamba Juice, but who do you think pays for all the protein berry pizzazz? That's right! I do! (You can put in whatever restaurant, fast food joint and certain type of food you want in place of Jamba and Protein Berry Pizzazz)

Rescuer: Hello? Hello? Anyone here?

Todd: Uh...we are. (Holding Wilson)

Rescuer: Sir, you've been rescued! We've noticed movement down on the island and decided to get a closer look. You said "we". There are others?

Todd: Rescued. Wow! I can't believe this. Wilson, we've been rescued!

Rescuer: Who's Wilson? Where is he?

Todd: Right here. (Holding up Wilson and showing the face; to Rescuer) Let's go!

To read the rest of this script and perform it, download the full version at SkitGuys.com!

ENDING:

Todd: Oh yeah...it's hard to find the right church that has everything you want- worship, good preaching, great inspiring messages, _____, _____, _____, (name some things that always get complaints that there are never "enough" of or something that a congregant feels needs to be added). I'm going to miss them all...let's go.

Rescuer: What about that one way in the back?

Todd: (Seems a little disgusted at looking at the dilapidated old box) That one? That's my old church. We just didn't see eye to eye on some certain things. They've got _____, _____ (name some different church activities or parts of a service that some people find offensive or don't want in a service}- they even let people do skits and dramas in that one!

Rescuer: It's just like home.

Todd: Wilson still goes but I'm working on him. (Walks offstage)

Rescuer: (Looking around and goes by the one labeled "church") How very sad.

Lights out.