

A script from

“Coffee for Dad”

by

Eddie James and Tommy Woodard

- What Just like a loving father treasures small, simple moments with his son or daughter, so does the Heavenly Father with his children. (Themes: Father, Dad, Children, Unconditional Love, Parenting, Heavenly Father, Abba, Time)
- Who 1 male
Optional- mom, son,
daughter
- When Present day
- Wear (Props) You can use as many props as you'd like. For instance, you can use a kitchen setting shown in the video with the actor sitting on a stool at a “kitchen bar” with a coffee cup. Or the actor may simply deliver the monologue standing.
- Why Deuteronomy 6:4-9
- How This monologue is basically telling a story, so really paint the picture of the events. Be careful not to overdramatize, however. For more ideas, watch the video “Coffee for Dad” at www.skitguys.com.
- Time Approximately 2-3 minutes *This script is 1 page long.