- How This skit is pretty straightforward. Timing will be key for the humor, so make sure it moves quickly without feeling rushed.
- Time Approximately 2-3 minutes

Jesse and seven of his boys are off in the distance, tending the field when Samuel approaches. Jesse should be in the middle of the stage and Samuel will briskly approach him.

Samuel: (As Samuel approaches, he begins to speak while he is still a few paces back.) Hello, Jesse. I am Samuel the priest. (Now up to Jesse who had not heard him.) Do you remember me?

Jesse: (Slowly looks up at Samuel with squinty eyes) I'm not sure but you look like Samuel the priest.

Samuel: That's what I said.

Jesse: I thought I said that. (They stare at each other for a few seconds.)

Samuel: Riiiggght. Anyway, I need to see your sons.

Jesse: I'll call them right over. (With a faint voice and pathetic attempt at a whistle, he calls.) Whoohoo! Sons! Whoohoo! (Looking back at Samuel) I don't know what's got into those boys. I guess I'll have to go over there and (pause) get'em.

Samuel: Allow me. (Loudly) Boys! (Samuel gestures for them to come over to him. Immediately the boys come to him. Jesse looks at Samuel and Samuel shrugs his shoulders. As the oldest boy approaches, Samuel has a look of approval on his face) Dude, he's huge! I mean, surely this is the one.

VO God: He's not the one.

Samuel: What? Really? He's the biggest of all the brothers. His shirt says, "Get'R Done."

ENDING:

Jesse: Good idea. (He shuffles over to Son #7 thinking it is Son #1) Eliam.

Eliam: (From the other end of the line.) Yes, Father.

Jesse: Oh. (He turn and shuffles head down to the end with Eliam. The boys simultaneously take large side steps to help him get to Eliam faster. Jesse looks up and then smiles with pride as if to say "I still got it!") Eliam, go get your brother. (Jesse starts shuffling back to Samuel. He stops mid way.) And Hurry. *(As the words come out of his mouth, Eliam is hot on his tail and David is a few paces behind. This could startle him again.)

David walks toward Samuel.*

VO God: This is the one.

Samuel: David, son of Jesse, God has chosen you to be the next king. (The Sons and Jesse all look confused by this) Come and kneel in front of me. (David does*) David, I anoint you. You are the chosen one.

Lights go down and all exit.
