

A script from

“Easter Call to Worship”

by
Skit Guys Studios

- What Jesus took our sins and healed us...and on the third day showed the world God's power. Use this call to worship to start your Easter Celebration and reflect on all that changed when Christ rose from the grave.
Themes: Easter, Resurrection, Sunrise, Third Day, Wounds, Healed, Risen
- Who Actor
- When Present
- Wear (Props) None
- Why Isaiah 53:5
- How It is possible to split the dialogue up between 2 people. An idea is to have your worship leader/band playing the intro into a song while this script is being performed. Actors should read with passion and conviction, being careful not to rush through it. Take your time. It's possible to use a black folder with the script inside to read from, but we recommend memorizing it so that you are focused on the audience and not the script.
- Time Approximately 2 minutes

Actor addresses the audience.

Actor: He is alive. Christ is alive. He has made the unbelievable, believable.
God's power shown forth on the third day. Christ is alive!

By His wounds we are healed. The wounds that we inflicted.
Wounds of doubt.
Wounds of rebellion.
Wounds of the flesh.
Wounds of the heart.
Wounds of the mind.
He carried our pain.
And now, by His wounds we are healed.

Today we rejoice, for Christ is our salvation.

The wood.
The nails.
The tomb.
Nothing could keep him in the grave. He has conquered death.

Today, this day, we praise God for the triumphed Christ.
Today, this day, we rejoice that death no longer stings.
Today, this day, we find comfort in a Savior who has gone before us and will come again!

Bring us home. Christ is alive. He is risen. He is risen indeed!