Eddie and Tommy address the audience.

Eddie: Let's talk about grace. What does it look like? Let's face it; we just don't get it—grace, I mean. What does grace really look like? We start not getting it, even when we're little kids. Even when we're in Sunday School.

Scene One: Eddie becomes Sunday School teacher and Tommy becomes Billy

Eddie: Alright, class, I'm going to be your Sunday School teacher this morning.

Tommy: (As Billy) Hi! Hi!

Eddie: Your real teacher needed a break.

Tommy: Yeah, she started talking to the erasers.

Eddie: Yes, I remember you. What's your name?

Tommy: My name's Billy. Like the goat! (makes a goat sound)

Eddie: Right. Okay. So, I was looking over the curriculum and it looks like you're learning about Zaccheus.

Tommy: Yes! I like Zack-knee-us!

Eddie: No, Zaccheus.

Tommy: Zoo-coo!

Eddie: Um, right, Zaccheus. Okay. So Zaccheus wasn't really liked and Jesus came along and showed him grace.

Tommy: Kind of like you!

Eddie: So I want to show you a song.

Tommy: Oh I like songs!

Eddie: Okay, it goes like this: (begins to sing) Zaccheus was a wee little man-
(Tommy giggles) Billy...Billy? What is it? What's the matter?

Tommy: You said "wee"! (Continues fit of giggling)

Eddie: Okay. Alright. How old are you, Billy?

Tommy: I'm four.

Eddie: Need you to be a mature four. More mature, more mature, more mature. (Through each "mature" Tommy's face gets more serious) Okay. That's fine. Zaccheus was a wee little man (Tommy bursts into laughter again). Billy, "wee" means "small".

Tommy: It means something else too!

Eddie: Alright. Mature four, mature four, mature four, ninety-five years old. (Again through each "mature" Tommy's face is more serious). Okay, here we go. Zaccheus was a wee little man, and a wee little man was he.

Tommy: (Uncontrollable laughter) You said "wee-wee"!

Eddie: Yes, I did. My bad. Okay, mature four, more mature, more mature, almost dead. (Tommy makes the faces again) There we go! Zaccheus was a wee little man and a wee little man was he. He climbed up in a sycamore tree-

Tommy: Oh! What did you say?!

Eddie: He climbed up in the sycamore tree- (Tommy cries)

Tommy: What's wrong with the tree?

Eddie: There's nothing wrong with the tree, Billy. He climbed up in the sycamore tree...

Tommy: You said it was sick. (Bawling) You said it was "sick more".

Eddie: No, no I did not.

Tommy: This is a horrible song! It's about dying trees and you're teaching it to children! We're just children! You hate the forest.

Eddie: Billy, listen to me. More mature, more mature, more mature, in the grave. Sycamore is the name of a tree. (Tommy cries again)

Tommy: The tree was sick because it was wee-wee'd on, isn't it!

Eddie: No, no, no. Zaccheus was a wee little man (Tommy laughs) and a wee little man was he. He climbed up in the oak tree -

Tommy: Okay! I like the oak tree. It's a healthy oak tree.

Eddie: Yes it is. (Continues) For the Lord he wanted to see.

Tommy: Oh! Jesus is coming!

Eddie: And as the savior passed his way -

Tommy: Where is he?

Eddie: Well, he's going to look up in the tree, because no one likes Zaccheus. So Jesus is going to show him grace! So as the Savior passed that way he looked up in the tree. And he said-

Tommy: You quit wee-weeing on trees!

End of scene

Eddie: Grace. We just don't get it. And let's face it, even in relationships, we just don't get it.

Scene Two: Tommy becomes Nightrain and Eddie becomes his normal cousin.

Eddie: Let's see, if I can get home by 4:00 I can... (to Tommy) Hey!

Tommy: (As Nightrain) Hey there, cous'. How you doin' man?

Eddie: Hey, Rodney. What brings you to the 'burbs?

Tommy: Yeah, well, mom and dad moved the house again, but I found 'em.

Eddie: What's your email name that you go by now?

Tommy: Oh. Nightrain. Yeah, just call me Nightrain, cous'. I knew I's in your neighborhood so I thought I'd stop by and see ya 'cause I got some big news.

Eddie: You got some big news?

Tommy: Yeah, big news. Guess what, guess what?

Eddie: What?

Tommy: I'm getting' married! Darn straight!

Eddie: Wow, you found somebody to marry. That's great!

Tommy: She is awesome! (Pronounced ow-sum) She's awe-some!

Eddie: Well that's great. Good for you.

Tommy: Hey, try to guess what she's like.

Eddie: No, I don't want to.

Tommy: Oh c'mon. ("Punches" and badgers till he guesses)

ENDING:

Eddie: Jesus, mere words could not describe the passion that I have for you. With everything that I am, I love you. With everything that I have, I love you.

Tommy: Then feed my sheep.

Eddie: I didn't even know you had livestock.

Tommy: Peter, that day that you went to the tomb, what did the angel say? What did he say?

Eddie: Let's see... me and John ran to the tomb and if John says he beat me he's totally lying. I beat him. And we got there and there was an angel of the Lord and he said "Go tell the disciples and Peter that everything is okay. He is risen."

Tommy: What did he say?

Eddie: He said, "Go tell the disciples and Peter that everything is okay. He is risen." And here you are! You're risen!

Tommy: I know. What did he say?

Eddie: He said, "Go tell the disciples and Pe..." You said my name. You said my name. After I denied you three times and I ran...you said my name. Why did you say my name? Why did you say my name? I totally left you. Why did you say my name?

Tommy: Peter. It's not about you. It's about me—the God of grace. I say your name because I love you, Peter. It's forgiven. It's forgotten. That's grace.

The End.
