

A script from

“Here I Am Lord, Send Me”

by
Eddie James and Jeff Maguire

- What A Reader’s Theater piece about how we desire and dream of greatness, but only through the power of God will we find purpose in those dreams. (Themes: Taking risks for God, Recognizing opportunities, Move forward, Self-pity, Being wonderfully made)
- Who Actor 1
Actor 2
Actor 3
- When Present day
- Wear (Props) None
- Why Isaiah 6:1-8, Psalm 139
- How The script is broken up into ideas and sentences that are divided between the actors. This should help in the memorization process. Use your imagination in everything from staging, to line delivery. The actors are not tied down to any specific character so the sky’s the limit! Have fun!
- Time Approximately 2-4 minutes

Actor 1: I'm afraid to be different

Actor 2: I'm afraid to be an individual.

Actor 3: I don't want people to see who I really I am.

Actor 2: Would they laugh at me?

Actor 1: Would they judge me?

Actor 3: What if they stopped being my friend?

Actor 1: Every night I cry myself to sleep...

Actor 2: ... bury my dreams...

Actor 3: ... strangle my hopes...

All: ... abandon who I am.

Actor 2: I just wanna be like everyone else.

Actor 3: Or do I?

Actor 1: Is that what I want? To be a copy?

Actor 3: I'm searching.
