

A script from

“Just Like You, Mom”

by
Stephanie James

- What Have your Moms pulling out their tissues and ruining their mascara this Mother's Day with this sweet Readers Theatre script spoken by children.
Themes: Moms, Children, Parents, Parenting
- Who Reader 1
Reader 2
Reader 3
- When Present
- Wear (Props) Readers can wear casual clothes.
- Why Jeremiah 1:5; Psalm 139:13
- How This was written for children to read. The children could be of any age - it could even be a mix of older and younger children. You can have music playing underneath their lines. You can also use more Readers if you'd like.
- Time Approximately 1-2 minutes

Readers 1, 2 and 3 enter and address the audience.

R1: Jeremiah 1:5 says, "Before I formed you in your mother's womb I chose you."

R2: "Before you were born I set you apart."

R3: And when God chose me

R1: He chose me to be with you.

R2: To be my Mom.

R3: You have carried me.

R1: And kept me safe in your loving arms.

R2: You have walked beside me.

R3: And shown me the right path to take.

R1: You have taught me with your hands.

R2: To give and to help others.

R3: Your lips have showered me with kisses.

R1: And told me how much you love me.

R2: You were my first glimpse of God's love.

R3: God, who keeps us safe in His loving arms.

R1: Just like you, Mom.

R2: God, who walks beside us.

R3: Just like you, Mom.

R1: God, whose greatest gift was to give us His son.

R2: And I am so glad He gave me to you.

R1,2,3: Because I love you, Mom.

Children exit.