

A script from

"Oh My Larry!"

by onetimeblind

www.onetimeblind.com

- What The name of God is tossed around so loosely these days, it's hard to know whether He's truly respected. If you've ever wondered about the holiness of His name, take a look at this. Themes: Purity, Ten Commandments, Language, God's Name, Holy, Sacred
- Who Drew
Laura
- When Present
- Wear (Props) None
- Why Matthey 6:9; Exodus 20:7
- How Keep things moving and the dialogue conversational.
- Time Approximately 1-2 minutes

Drew and Laura are having a conversation as they walk onstage.

Drew: Oh my God! I can't believe it! I had the WORST night's sleep last night.

Laura: (Immediately looking at Drew strangely) What? Why?

Drew: My neighbor's kid. They got this drum set, and apparently he wants to play it until 4 am every night! I'm like, God, kid! Go to bed! Please!

Laura: Oh my Larry, I know what you mean.

Drew looks at Laura curiously after she says, "Oh my Larry."

Laura: My nephew has a drum set, too. He does the same thing.

Drew: God, it's unbelievable, isn't it?

Laura: Oh my Larry, it is so unbelievable.

Drew: Wow...

Laura: Every time he pulls that thing out, I'm like, oh my Larry, oh my Larry...

Drew: Wow, Laura?

Laura: (Continuing) Oh my Larry! You can't be serious!

To read the rest of this script and perform it, download the full version at SkitGuys.com!

ENDING:

Laura: (Pausing) Okay. Oh my Larry, what's wrong with you?

Drew: Oh my God! What's wrong with you? Laura, you keep taking my dad's name, right? And throwing it into a sentence like it's some kind of cuss word or something. God! Why do you keep disrespecting my father?

Laura: Well, why do you keep disrespecting my Father?

They look at each other a moment, then walk offstage.