Person: God, what's this?

God: This is what I want to make out of your life over the next few months.

Person: This?

God: Yup.

Person: Wow!

God: I know.

Person: This is awesome!

God: Thanks.

Person: So how are you going to make it?

God: Well, first you add some joy.

Person: Great.

God: Some peace.

Person: Love it.

God: Some reassurance and edifying words of encouragement.

Person: Good. Good.

God: Then we add trial and conviction.

Person: Ummm...

God: Mix it together with adversity.

Person: Adversity?

God: Then we put it in the fire for about six months.

Person: Whoa, whoa, whoa. Okay, let's slow down here.

God: What's the problem?

Person: I think you might be looking at the wrong recipe.

God: No, no this is the perfect mixture.

Person: Yeah...I think we need to talk about this a little bit.

God: Talk about this?

Person: Yeah.

God: I thought you were excited about what I wanted to do with your life?

Person: I am.

God: Okay good. (Rolls up his sleeve like he is ready to get started.)

Person: I just think there's another way to make this.

God: You know another way?

Person: Well, I think I could find one.

God: Have you made this before?

Person: No.

God: Have you even imagined this before?

Person: No.

God: What makes you think you can make this?

Person: I know me.

God: I know you too. Better than you do.

Person: But it's my life.

God: Who's life? I thought you gave your life to me?

Person: You know what I mean.

God: You mean that I can do what I want with your life.

ENDING:

Person: This is going to hurt. I'm going to hate this.

God: When you gave me your life you laid down your desires to follow mine.

Person: Is this a trust thing? I've already said that I trust you. I've already proved that through other trials. I don't want to walk through this one.

God: When you gave me your life you laid down your desires to follow mine.

Person: (Pause) When I gave you my life I laid down my desires to follow yours.

God: Okay. Then let's get started.

Person: Okay.

Lights out. The end.
