

A script from

“Teacher Training”

by Susan Greenwood

- What A young child approaches his teacher wanting to accept Christ. At first the teacher is less than helpful, but on a second try is able to lead him to Christ. Themes: Salvation, Evangelism, Child-like faith, Children’s ministry, Witnessing, Gospel, Training, Children, Kids Church, Teaching
- Who Teacher
Child 1
Child 2
Narrator
- When Present
- Wear (Props) Desk
Teaching material
Backpacks for children
Wordless book, Gospel tract, sharing bracelet (with colored beads)
- Why Romans 10:9, 1 Peter 3:15, John 3:16
- How Keep this conversational, especially with the kids. Don’t be overdramatic.
- Time Approximately 3-5 minutes

Scene opens with the Teacher wrapping up the lesson.

Teacher: I'm glad you were here today. See you next week. (Immediately turns to pick up stuff to leave).

Child 1: (Approaching her/him) Mr./Mrs. _____, I was wondering...well, I've been thinking a lot about Jesus lately.

Teacher: (Hurriedly) Great! I'm so glad to hear that. If you have any questions be sure and let me know. (Starts to walk off.)

Child 1: (Quickly) Can I ask you something?

Teacher: (Shoulders tense up in response) Uh...sure.

Child 1: During Easter, I heard a lot about Jesus dying on the cross for my sin. And, (pause) I'm ready!

Teacher: You're ready?

Child 1: Yes, to do whatever I'm supposed to do now.

Teacher: Wow! That's great! (Pause) All you have to do...well, first you...you know, our Pastor would love to share with you how you can come to know Christ as your Lord and Savior.

Child 1: (Disappointed) O.K. (Gets up and starts walking off. Pauses and turns.) Thanks.

Teacher: Glad I could help!

Child 1 walks slowly toward where the Pastor is seated, looks at him and then turn and walks off where he/she is intercepted by Child 2.*

Child 2: Hey, what's wrong with you?

Child 1: Nothing, it doesn't matter.

Child 2: Did you have to go to church this morning?

Child 1: Yeah.

Child 2: Thought so. I've been there myself.

Child 1: I don't want to talk about it. Come on. Let's go ride bikes.

To read the rest of this script and perform it, download the full version at SkitGuys.com!

ENDING:

The child walk off toward the Pastor, looks at him and then shyly walks away and when he/she is intercepted by Child 2. Child 1 has a huge smile this time.

Child 2: Hey, what's wrong with you?

Child 1: Nothing, everything is great!

Child 2: (Confused) Whatever. Did you go to church this morning?

Child 1: Yes! It was great!

Child 2: Really? (Pause) Oh, you must have had game day today.

Child 1: Nope.

Child 2: Well, why are you so happy?

Child 1: I'm glad you asked. Have you ever seen a bracelet like this? It tells a story. Would you like to hear it?

Child 2: Do I have a choice?

Child 1: Oh, come on—you'll live. (Exit together)

Lights out. The end.