Luke 2:8-14

Reader: That night some shepherds were in the fields outside the village, guarding their flocks of sheep. Suddenly, an angel of the Lord appeared among them, and the radiance of the Lord's glory surrounded them. They were terribly frightened, but the angel reassured them. "Don't be afraid!" he said. "I bring you good news of great joy for everyone!"

All: The Savior – yes, the Messiah, the Lord – has been born tonight in Bethlehem, the city of David!

Reader: Suddenly, the angel was joined by a vast host of others – the armies of heaven – praising God:

All: "Glory to God in the highest heaven, and peace on earth to all whom God favors."

John 1:1-5, 14

Reader: In the beginning the Word already existed. He was with God, and he was God. He was in the beginning with God. He created everything there is. Nothing exists that he didn't make. Life itself was in him, and this life gives light to everyone. The light shines through the darkness, and the darkness can never extinguish it.

All: So the Word became human and lived here on earth among us. He was full of unfailing love and faithfulness. And we have seen his glory, the glory of the only Son of the Father.

Colossians 1:15-17

Reader: Christ is the visible image of the invisible God. He existed before God made anything at all and is supreme over all creation. Christ is the one through whom God created everything in heaven and earth. He made the things we can see and the things we can't see – kings, kingdoms, rulers, and authorities. Everything has been created through him and for him.

All: He existed before everything else began, and he holds all creation together.

ENDING:

All: "The Lamb is worthy – the Lamb who was killed.
He is worthy to receive power and riches
and wisdom and strength and honor and glory and blessing."

Reader: And then I heard every creature in heaven and on earth and under the earth and in the sea. They also sang:

All: "Blessing and honor and glory and power belong to the one sitting on the throne and to the Lamb forever and ever."

The end.
