Why 1 Corinthians 13:1-8 Contemporary English Version

How Scripture Readings are tricky. They can come across as “cheesy” if the piece hasn’t been read through by the readers. The great thing about a reading is the leader has the ability to print this up and pick three people to do it the day of the event. It’s also a great reminder to sit and listen to scripture and hear what we’ve forgotten on certain subjects of our lives.

Make sure the readers have the piece down. There are parts that weave together between the three readers. If it is off a bit, it will mess up the rhythm of the piece. If they don’t get it down, it’s better to break it up in chunks instead of line to line.

Time Approximately 2-4 minutes

READER 1: 1 What if I could speak
all languages
of humans
and of angels?
If I did not love others,
I would be nothing more than a noisy gong
or a clanging cymbal.

READER 2: 2 What if I could prophesy
and understand
all secrets
and all knowledge?
And what if I had faith
that moved mountains?
I would be nothing,
unless I loved others.

These repeating lines should be said rhythmically

READER 3 ...unless I loved others...

READER 1: ... unless I loved others...

READER 3: 3 What if I gave away all that I owned
and let myself
be burned alive?
[a] I would gain nothing,
unless I loved others.

READER 2: ...unless I loved others...

READER 1: ... unless I loved others...

READER 1: 4 Love is kind and patient,
never jealous, boastful,
proud, or 5 rude.

READER 3: Love isn't selfish
or quick tempered.

READER 2: It doesn't keep a record
of wrongs that others do.

READER 1: 6 Love rejoices in the truth,
but not in evil.

READER 2: 7 Love is always supportive,
loyal, hopeful,
and trusting.
