Delivered with over-the-top energy.

MAN: I love Jesus. I love Him so much. I know it's not a competition, but if it were, I'd probably be beating you right now. While others are out watching sports or hanging out with their friends, you know where I am? Reading my Bible. Yeah, and not just the easy stuff either, I'm reading Leviticus, Numbers, and Deuteronomy...at the same time...in Greek! I don't really understand it, but I'm doing it anyway.

I teach not one, but two Bible Studies. One on the socio-economic effects of the gospel in third world countries and the other on the pre-trib/post-trib debate and what this means to our increasingly divisive bi-partisan political system.

Complete change in body, face, and demeanor. This section is delivered as sincerely as possible.

...and yet, I still don't know God. (Pause) I'm dying on the inside because I've never taken the time to actually listen to God. I've never truly believed in grace.

ENDING:

Collects himself and is back like before.

You know I'm just tired because I just finished my most recent 7-day fast. Look, I'd love to stay and chat but I saw some people sinning on the way in, and I'm probably the only Jesus they're going to see, so I better go save 'em. Enjoy the rest of your night and remember if people can't see what you're doing, you're probably not doing enough.

Lights out.
