

A script from

“The Path”

by

- What God’s word is a lamp to our feet and a light to our path. Yet, so often we try to blaze our own trail, rather than trusting in the one that God has designed for us to follow. Themes: Holy Spirit, God's Word, Bible, Follow, Instructions, Direction
- Who Jordan
Brad
- When Present
- Wear (Props) Map
Hiking clothes
- Why Psalm 119:105
- How This script takes good comic timing. Keep the energy up and the dialogue moving. Make sure there is a distinct difference between Jordan and Brad, Jordan being a nervous wreck and Brad being completely oblivious to his mistake.
- Time Approximately 5-6 minutes

Jordan: I can't believe we are lost, seriously we're in the middle of nowhere and we are lost. WE ARE SO LOST!

Brad: We're not lost, we're just not...found.

Something flies over both of their heads and they hit the ground. Jordan screams.

Jordan: What was that?

Brad: Just a hawk. We'll be fine.

Jordan: Will we, WILL WE?! You know people die from getting lost.

Brad: Aren't you being a little dramatic there, Jordan.

Jordan: They do. Bears attack. Or lions. Or sasquatches.

Brad: Sasquatches?

Jordan: I saw it on an episode of Unsolved Mysteries.

Brad: We'll be fine. I know there's got to be a way to get to the campsite from here. This is a shortcut.

Jordan: How is this a shortcut? We've been walking FOREVER!

Brad: Fine it's a...long cut. (Beat) Just get off my back, okay? I know where we are. It's not like the map would have gotten us there any quicker.

Jordan: Map? What map?

Brad immediately realizes he has said too much.

Brad: What are you talking about? I didn't say map?

Jordan: Yes you did. You said there was a map. Do you have a map?

Brad: No.

Jordan: Do you?

Brad: No.

Jordan: Do you?!

Brad: Maybe.

Jordan: Are you serious?!

Brad: Is it really that important if I do or don't have a map?

Jordan: Yes, it is very important!

Brad: Calm down.

Jordan: Don't tell me to calm down! We've been walking in circles for hours now trying to find this campsite and you're telling me you had a map all along?

Brad: Yeah, so.

Jordan: SO?! So, why haven't we followed it? Huh? Why haven't you even taken it out?

Brad: Just calm down.

Jordan: I am calm. For how angry I am right now, this is calm! This is as calm as a Chinese peace lily.

ENDING:

Brad: Well don't get mad at me, it's not my fault.

Jordan: Yes it is! It is most certainly your fault. You had the map the whole time and you didn't do anything with it. You could have gotten us to the campsite hours ago and we could be roasting marshmallows as we speak, but because you were so "adventurous" we've been going the wrong way and now we're lost.

Brad: We'll be fine. I can get us back.

Jordan: No, you can't. But this can. (Grabs the map) This is the only way we're getting back, and this time we're actually going to use it. Come on.

Narrator: So often we try to forge our own paths, blaze our own trails, when God desires us to go a completely different way. Scripture says that God's Word is "A lamp to our feet and a light for our path." It, along with the Holy Spirit, reveals God's path for our lives. Are you following God's map, or simply wandering around lost?

Lights out.
