“Turkey Brothers”

by Knox McCoy

- What This skit shows that we have a knack for overlooking God’s blessings in the most trivial of ways when really, we should be continually conscious of all the different ways God blesses us and takes care of us. Themes: Happiness, Blessings, Thanksgiving, Understanding, Perspective
- Who Two Male Actors
- When Present day
- Wear (Props) Casual clothes. They clothes should somewhat resemble each other to evoke the idea that the actors are brothers, but nothing overboard and by “overboard” I mean matching Snuggies®.
- Why Psalm 69:30
- How The dialogue should be fast and very conversational. Not a lot of pauses or hesitations.
- Time 5-8 Minutes

Carl and Frank are sitting together on stage very casually.

Carl: Hi, I'm Carl.

Frank: Hi, I'm Frank.

Carl: And we're the Turkey brothers.

Frank: That's right - Carl and Frank Turkey.

Carl: Go ahead. Laugh it up. Make your little jokes.

Frank: We've already heard them all and, yes, for your information, this IS a Turkey leg (gestures to his posing leg).

Carl: Yeah and when we go to the beach and I forget sunscreen, you actually could call me a fried Turkey.

Frank: So yeah.

Carl: We get it.

Frank: Because we're the Turkey brothers.

Carl: But we're not here to listen to bad jokes about our last names. We wanted to talk to you for a minute about blessings.

Frank: For example, you're probably sitting there right now thinking about how you're soooo glad that your last name isn't Turkey.

Carl: Yeah, you're so smug sitting there in your smug chair with your smug last name.

Frank: Maybe your last name is even Smug. Nah, that's too obvious. It's probably Smuggington or Smugley. That's it: you are Sam Smugley and you're just sitting there so glad that you aren't Carl or Frank Turkey.

Carl: Well guess what? We're glad our last name is Turkey.

Frank: That's right, Sam Smugley. We like being total Turkeys.

Carl: Because you know what?

Frank: It could be a lot worse.

Carl: For instance what if our last name was Cream of Corn?

Frank: We'd be the Cream of Corn brothers? Yech.

Carl: Terrifying isn't it?

ENDING:

Carl: The point is, there will always be things you could dwell on and be sad about. But God never stops giving us things that we can be thankful for.

Frank: For Thanksgiving and, shucks, even when it isn't Thanksgiving, focus on what you do have.

Carl: Unless your last name is Cream of Corn.

Frank: Or Deviled Eggs.

Carl: Then we've got nothing for you.

Frank: Except pity. Lots of pity.

Lights out. The end.
