- What If you’ve ever asked God for something without believing He’ll really make it happen, this script is for you. Why pray for something if you don’t believe it makes a difference? Themes: Faith, Trust, Prayer, Belief, Doubt
- Who Laura
Kat
Drew
Ryan
- When Present
- Wear
(Props) Umbrella
- Why Matthew 7:11; 1 Peter 3:12; Matthew 9:29; Mark 6:5-6
- How Keep the dialogue conversational and energetic.
- Time Approximately 2 minutes

Four people walk onstage on a hot, sunny day. Ryan and Kat enter from stage right. Drew and Laura enter from stage left. Everyone is sweaty and fanning themselves.

Ryan: Okay!

Laura: It's so hot!

Drew: Whew!

Ryan: Kind of a hot day.

Drew: Ya think?

Kat: (Fanning herself) Ugh. It's SOO hot!

Drew: Three months and no rain is called a drought, right?

Ryan: That's what I'm saying.

Laura: That's right.

Kat: (Annoyed) What are we doing out here?!

Ryan: (Cheerfully) Okay, guys, I just thought we should meet and pray for rain. Okay?

Laura: (Into the idea) That's a great idea! Let's pray!

Ryan: I mean, it can't hurt.

Drew: (Rolling his eyes) Well, get on with it!

Ryan: Okay, so, join hands. Prayer works better that way.

All four reach out to hold hands. Kat will only touch fingers. Drew will only fan himself with his clothes.

ENDING:

Ryan: Remember? We just prayed about this, so...

Laura: Oh I know, we just prayed for rain, so, ya know, the clouds are gonna come, it's gonna rain, and you're gonna get wet.

Ryan: Are you new to this whole praying thing?

Laura: (Smiling) Oh no. No, no, no, no, no.

Ryan: Let me explain this to you. (Almost laughing, confidently) Um, I wouldn't be counting on the rain.

Laura: (Emphatically) Oh, well, maybe it's not the rain you should be counting on.

She hands the umbrella to Ryan, then exits. Lights out. The end.
